Julie Flanery CPDT-KA has been working professionally with dogs and their handlers since 1993. She focuses on the needs of the dog and helping dogs and handlers form a strong relationship, through clear communication, and positive reinforcement. Julie is an instructor at the Fenzi Dog Sports Academy, and is the author of the acclaimed book, "Joy of Heeling – Building Confidence, Enthusiasm and Precision through Games". She has titled dogs in many venues including Obedience, Freestyle, Rally, Rally-FrEe, and earned multiple Championship titles in Heelwork-to-Music, Freestyle, and Rally-FrEe. Julie has been a competition freestyle judge since 2003, and developed the sport of Rally-FrEe to help freestylers increase the quality and precision of their performances. It has since become a stand-alone sport enjoyed by dog sport enthusiasts all over the world.

Working Spot - 3 days - $450 (limited availability!)

Handler can work with up to 2 dogs, with 1 dog per working session.

Auditing Spot - $90.00 per day Auditor dog - additional $20 per dog per day.
